DID YOU KNOW?

New South Wales' answer to Coober Pedy is the fascinating Lightning Ridge which showcases creativity even if it's in the middle of nowhere. Known across Australia as the Black Opal Capital of the world, Lightning Ridge has a few quirky attractions in addition to the ubiquitous mine tours and opal shopping.

It is eight and a half hours' drive from Sydney on the Great Inland Way en-route to Hebel, Qld.

NEWS AND VIEWS FROM AROUND

GPS FAILS

Google and Apple have been taken to task over inaccurate travel estimates. Two communities in South Australia are calling on the technology giants to review their mapping technology, amid claims inaccuracies are costing both towns crucial tourism trade.
