DID YOU KNOW ?

Laura is a small town in the Cape York Peninsula, known for its Quinkan Aboriginal rock galleries. It is was also an important town during the gold rush in the 1800s and located on the only road heading north towards the tip of the peninsula.

Laura is 315 kms via Mareeba or 336 kms via the Bloomfield Track from Cairns.

NEWS AND VIEWS FROM AROUND

NO TRAVEL

Australia's international border is likely to stay closed until 2021. The Government is urging people to spend money inside the country instead of planning overseas holidays. The travel bubble between Australia and New Zealand is still being discussed.
