4WD TOURING AUSTRALIA REVIEW

The good folks at 4WD Touring Australia (Australia's best offroad travel magazine & TV series) have written about Bus 4x4 and our 4x4 conversions. 4WD Touring explores the best destinations in Australia through in-depth coverage.

Carlisle Rogers, the publisher of 4WD Touring Australia has a decade of journalism and photography experience. He has published 94 issues of 4WD Touring Australia, filmed seven action-packed series for television and travelled over 250,000 outback kms. Click to read the article in full.

HUGHIE THE BEAST 4WD - PART 2

We continue into Part 2 of Rob Strauss and Genevieve Vallee's travels in their Bus 4x4 Conversion of Coaster motorhome into Northern Territory and Queensland.

From the rough and tumble racetracks of Maryvale Road to the lush springs of Savannah Way, from Kakadu National Park to the remote East Arnhem Land; follow their journey as they traverse off grid in Hughie the Beast 4WD Motorhome. All pictures are copyright of Genevieve Vallee and may not be reproduced without permission. Click to read the story.

DID YOU KNOW ?

Once touted as 'The Wildest Town in the West' with a gold boom and over 3,500 residents, Laverton which experiences classic desert climate is now popular as the staging point for the 4WD trek across the Great Victoria desert to Yulara and Uluru known as the Great Central Road.

Laverton is located 940 kms by road from Perth through Kalgoorlie.

NEWS AND VIEWS FROM AROUND

SUNFLOWERS

The tiny town of Greenethorpe in NSW hopes to ride the popularity of sunflowers to draw tourists. Like the 66 km Sunflower Route of Qld's Southern Downs, the Hodges family who planted the original sunflowers plans to open a "green biking" trail from Greenethorpe to Grenfell.

DINOSAURS

While many people are not aware that Winton is the home of Waltzing Matilda, everyone knows it is the dinosaur capital of Australia. And tourists are now flocking to this outback town with new discoveries which have been added to the dinosaur trail. Take a trip down to Winton and see what the fuss is.
