BREAKING NEWS

ROCK SLIDERS FOR HIACE

Do you want your Hiace to look 4x4 tough? Bus 4x4 now offers rock sliders to fit all models in the Hiace range. These rock sliders have been developed by us to custom fit the monocoque chassis (single hull body) of the Hiace through an innovative engineering solution.

For more details on the Bus 4x4 Conversion of Hiace, call us on 07 3276 1420.

WHAT'S HAPPENING?

WHY A 4x4 HIACE CONVERSION?

Do you need a 4x4 Conversion of Hiace? Tired of the bitumen travel and keen to explore the outback? Do you want a people mover or campervan conversion that can take you anywhere?

The Hiace was always Australia's most popular van, but the 300 Series has taken the "van platform" to another level for Toyota. Click here to read our blog on how the new 300 Series Hiace has become a game changer.

ALLAN WHITING REVIEW

Allan Whiting from Outback Travel Australia reviewed the Bus 4x4 Conversion of Hiace GL Commuter which was built for outback tour operator, Rangelands Outback Camp in May 2021.

Allan Whiting is Australia's foremost and respected 4x4 reviewer with over 15 years experience as 4x4 Australia Magazine's Technical Editor and a judge of 4x4 Australia Wagon of the Year and 4x4 Australia Ute of the Year. Click to read the article in full.

Congratulations to John Stainton of Rangelands Outback Camp on the Bus 4x4 Conversion of their 300 Series Hiace GL Commuter. Bus 4x4 wishes them all the best in their tour operations.

DID YOU KNOW ?

Marree is synonymous with the Australian outback and was an original stop for 'The Ghan'. This dusty town, home to 80 residents is the staging post for two famous outback routes, the Oodnadatta and Birdsville Tracks. It also has the heritage listed Marree Hotel and the mysterious Marree Man.

Marree is 650 kms north of Adelaide and 520 kms south of Birdsville.

NEWS AND VIEWS FROM AROUND

BIG RED BASH

The Big Red Bash which is the world's most remote music festival is set to return from 6-8 July 2021 in the Simpson Desert. Cancelled in 2020 due to Covid, the festival promises the biggest ever lineup of iconic Aussie rock stars such as Paul Kelly and others.

QLD BOOM

Outback Queensland is seeing an influx of tourists and workers this year. Motel operators in the north-west say they are turning away up to 10 tourists a day because they do not have enough room to cater to the increasing number of visitors.
