BUS 4x4 OFF-ROAD BLOG

WHAT 4x4 TYRES DO I NEED?

When people start talking about their 4x4 wheels and tyres, do you get confused? Do the terms profile or offset have you scratching your head? Do you manage to make head or tail of what they say?

Click here to read our blog as we explain a few terms in this article about tyre sizes, the different types, profiles, and the wheels/tyres that we use in our 4x4 conversions.

WANT TO GIVE US A REVIEW?

"Very Satisfied with Bus 4x4. They are very friendly, very helpful, not at all pushy"

DID YOU KNOW ?

Andamooka is an old mining town, part of 'The Flinders Ranges and Outback' region of South Australia. Like many outback towns, Andamooka has a unique character with floods, wildflowers, starry nights and is located near the Olympic Dam and Lake Torrens.

Andamooka lies about 612 kms north of Adelaide passing through Port Augusta.

Most Australian state borders are open for inter-state travel. However, restrictions may still apply to cross borders. Please check with the authorities for exit/entry requirements before travel

NEWS AND VIEWS FROM AROUND

TECHNOLOGY

Autonomous and drone technology are emerging as two of the most disruptive technologies in the mining industry. As miners are forced to search farther and farther for mineral deposits, they are now relying on mapping and information-gathering.
