BUS 4x4 UPDATES

Revved up and ready to roll, our team have had a busy month... working on a number of upgrades on some of our converted HiAce models.

Latest Blog!

The latest blog sheds light on the complex landscape of the mining and metals industry in 2024. Ernst & Young's insights on the top 10 risks and opportunities emphasise the ongoing significance of ESG factors, climate change and production costs.

While ESG initiatives face increased scrutiny, climate change poses a unique challenge in balancing carbon-emitting resources with sustainable solutions. Rising production costs, driven by factors like labour competition and technology expenses, demand a focus on efficiency and innovation.
